Join our dynamic Global Alliance of Entrepreneurial Universities

In a world teeming with challenges and opportunities, higher education must evolve. Our Global Alliance unites universities worldwide, all driven by a shared mission: to cultivate a thriving, successful society through entrepreneurial mindset and practice.

This is a truly global community, diverse in its representation but united in the pursuit of innovation. By joining us, you'll connect with universities globally, share best practices, launch new initiatives, and elevate your work's profile.

Why Join Us?

When you join our community, you'll:

- Forge new global collaborations.
- Be part of a network of universities with shared goals.
- Enhance your university and students' ability to adapt in a fast-changing world.
- Leverage global knowledge and innovation.
- Access resources to lead transformative change.
- Elevate your entrepreneurial leadership skills.

Our Alliance empowers universities to lead in innovative thinking and initiatives, boosting their visibility and development while supporting international engagement.

Our membership is growing rapidly. See our current members at ncee.org.uk/global-alliance.
